

MCGILL UNIVERSITY HEALTH CENTRE
Department of Medicine, Division of General Internal Medicine
Faculty Positions at the Assistant or Associate Professor Level

The Department of Medicine of McGill University and of the McGill University Health Centre (MUHC), Division of General Internal Medicine, (<http://www.mcgill.ca/internalmed/>) is inviting applications for two positions at the Assistant or Associate Professor level. The MUHC is one of the largest academic health providers in Canada with a new aggressive leadership dedicated to expand clinical, research and community services. McGill University is an English-speaking university located in Montreal, one of North America's most cosmopolitan cities. For more information about McGill University, please see www.mcgill.ca.

The first position available is a Clinician-Scientist position. The candidate will be an internist with postdoctoral training (MSc or other) in clinical research and an academic track record. The ideal candidate should have research experience and publications. Preferred but not exclusive research areas are vascular diseases, complications of pregnancy and quality improvement. The candidate would be expected to commit at least 50% of his/her time to research.

The second position available is a Clinician-Educator position. The candidate will be an internist with postdoctoral training in education research. The ideal candidate should have teaching and research experience and will be active in the design and evaluation of teaching programs in the outpatient setting within the MUHC and the McGill Réseau universitaire intégré de santé (RUIS).

Applicants must be eligible for licensure in the province of Quebec. Candidates would benefit from a working knowledge of French as well as English. Compensation will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

Please submit a curriculum vitae, list of publications, outline of current research interests, as well as names, addresses and contact numbers of three references within 30 days of publication of this advertisement to:
